no respect towards law and he didn't change his behavior but turned adamant and is continuing illegal activities. The above individual is continuously engaging in property-related crimes over an extended period. Despite being arrested previously and released on bail, he has unabatedly continued his criminal activities. he has been repeatedly apprehended while committing similar offences, demonstrating a clear pattern of recidivism and habitual criminal behaviour. Thus, he falls under section 2(g) of Andhra Pradesh Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Dacoits, Drug Offenders, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders and Land Grabbers Act, 1986 and he is acting in prejudicial manner to the maintenance of public order.

2. AND WHEREAS, the Government have accorded approval of the said detention order under sub-section (3) Section 3 of the Act, vide Government Orders 3rd read above.

3. AND WHEREAS, under Section 10 of the Act, Government within three weeks from the date of detention of a person under the order shall place the case before the Advisory Board on Preventive Detentions, constituted under Section 9 of the said Act, comprising of Chairman and two Members and the Advisory Board shall submit its report to Government within seven weeks from the date of detention under Section 11(1) of the said Act. The above said case was placed before the Advisory Board for its consideration and to submit its report to Government, vide letter 5th read above. The case was reviewed by the Advisory Board on 12.09.2025 through video conference. After having heard the detenue and the Investigating Officer, who have attended the Video Conference and also upon perusing the grounds of detention and the connected records, the Advisory board has unanimously opined and reported that "there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenue".

4. AND WHEREAS, the Government after careful examination of the entire record, observed that Sri Gampala Satish, S/o Govindu, aged 25 years, R/o D.No.59-20-10/11, Near Venkateswara Swamy Temple, Palivelavari Street, Satyadev Nagar, Jagannadhapuram, Kakinada District, Andhra Pradesh State, is found to be involved in as many as in Eight (08) cases mentioned in the grounds of detention. All the instances mentioned above clearly establish that he is an habitual offender and his activities are habitual in nature and which are registered under various sections i.e. 379, 382 IPC, U/s 307, 331(4) & 305(a) BNS. As such, the activities of the individual falls under and within the meaning of "Goonda" as defined under section 2(g) of Act 1 of 1986. The detaining authority having taken into account and consideration of indulgence of the detenu in the above said activities repeatedly at regular intervals and having satisfied that the penal laws have failed to curb him illegal activities, has passed the detention order against the detenu by invoking the provisions under the Act 1 of 1986, in order to prevent him from indulging further in such activities, which are prejudicial to maintenance of public order. The Advisory Board after review of the case, has opined that there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenu. As such, the detenu deserves the maximum period of detention, as provided under Section 13 of the Act.
